The warranty does not cover cosmetic damages (scratches, dents, cracks, ...), which have not been claimed within 8 days of the delivery of the goods.

In no event shall Barco be liable for any defects, failures, loss of or damage caused by or resulting from wear and tear, any external cause or event out of Barco's control, use or operation of the product prior to acceptance, any act or negligence of customer or any third party, or any phenomena inherent to the technology used such as image retention, burn-in, vibrations, etc...

The warranty is void if serial numbers, warning labels or original seals are removed, changed or tampered with.

What we will do:

During the warranty period, Barco will, at its sole discretion, repair (at Barco's own or at a Barco certified service center), or replace (using new or refurbished replacement parts) any defect within a reasonable period of time and free of charge. The replaced product, parts and/or components shall become the property of Barco and shall, at our request, be returned to Barco, otherwise invoiced.

Barco Mounting Structure

The final pixel to pixel gap between two adjacent screens depends on the adjustment performance of the mounting structure used and on the size of the video-wall. The possibility of damaging a panel during the installation is also highly dependent on the type of mounting structure used. In order to achieve best in class pixel to pixel gap and minimize the risk to damage a panel during the installation BARCO strongly advises to use BARCO mounting structure or a mounting structure present in the Barco approved list of mounting structures that can be found in the "Service Plan – EVD,OVD, KVD & IVD" document.

UniSee however comes with a dedicated mounting structure that prevents damage to the mechanical components during the installation and uses the power of gravity to automatically align panels guaranteeing the best possible alignment in function of the tolerances and the size of the wall. An installer must follow the dedicated online training before attempting any configuration or installation. Before unpacking the LCM, you must run the "LCM DOA test" using the test script supplied with the LCM to detect certain damages (including mechanical damage, broken glass, glass cracks, horizontal or vertical line defects). If the test reveals any damages, you must report them immediately and leave the LCM in its original packaging. Any damage which the "LCM DOA test" can detect, but reported after the blue package seal is broken, is not covered by the warranty.
